

Celebration of world soil health day on 5.12.18 at KVK Jabalpur

KVK Jabalpur Celebrated World Soil Health Day on 5th December 2018. Around 104 farmers and 22 officials were participated in the programme. The chief guest of the programme was Dr. (Smt) Om Gupta, Director Extension Services, JNKVV, Jabalpur. Training on soil health and fertility management was also organised in which following topics are covered by Scientists of KVK and College of Agriculture, Jabalpur.

1. Role of biofertilizers in soil health management
2. Importance of Soil Health Card
3. Importance of Soil Testing and its advantage
4. Resource management for better soil health & sustainable agriculture
5. Agri-waste Management
6. Awareness about Soil Health Card

In addition to above following extension activities were also carried out.

1. Launching of publications on soil health management
2. Quiz competition on World Soil Health Day
3. Distribution of Soil Health Cards
4. Documentary on Integrated nutrient management
5. Visit to agri-waste management unit and soil testing lab

Celebration of World Soil Health Day at KVK Jabalpur

Distribution of Soil Health Cards